

Alternative Study and Examination Programs

1. Home Study and Exam at our Office in Atascadero or Visalia:

This option includes the FS&T Food Safety Handbook (English) and the examination at our Atascadero or Visalia office for $164.00. After telephone registration we will mail you the handbook for self study. When you are ready to take the exam, please contact us at 805.434.5687 to make an appointment to take the *exam at our location.

2. Home Study and Exam at your Location (San Luis Obispo County Only):

This option includes the FS&T Food Safety Handbook (English) and the examination at your location in San Luis Obispo County for $199.00. After telephone registration we will mail you the handbook for self study. When ready to take the exam, please contact us at 805.434.5687 to make an appointment to take the *exam at your location.

3. Exam Only:

We do offer the examination only for $79.00. If you wish to take the exam only, you must attend one of our regularly scheduled courses, but do not arrive at the location until 11:15 a.m. and tell the instructor you want to take the exam only. Register online at www.fidelitysafety.com and enter coupon code 7900 at checkout.

4. Online Examination:

* State law requires that the examination be supervised by an approved exam proctor. When you register for one of the options above, your exam may either be in written form or online depending on location, exam availability and Internet connection availability. If you have a preference, please advise us during telephone registration. The exam provided will be from the National Registry of Food Safety Professionals (NRFSP).

5. Retest:

In the event you did not pass the examination, you may retest at your convenience. The fee is $59.00 and you may take the entire course and exam again or just the exam only. Register online at www.fidelitysafety.com, select the course/exam date and enter coupon code 5900 at checkout.

6. Online Training Courses

We do offer 11 different online training courses. The Food Safety Management Principles Course ($85.00) is a certification preparation course. Once you complete this course, follow the instructions to register for the examination only option as listed above in section #3. For more info about our online training courses, go to www.fidelitysafety.com/services/CA_food_online.html.
